

Family and Visitor Behavior Guidelines

At University of Washington Medical Center (UWMC)

UWMC has patient rooms, clinics, offices, and public spaces. We have the right to take whatever actions are needed to maintain a safe environment in all of these areas.

This handout is for staff to give to any visitor who behaves in ways that are not in keeping with UWMC's Workplace Violence Prevention Policy.

Our staff and doctors have the right to practice patient care in a safe place. It is also UWMC's responsibility to make sure the hospital is a safe place for our patients and their visitors.

The Department of Public Safety at UWMC thanks you for helping to keep the medical center a safe place for everyone.

About These Guidelines

UWMC welcomes patients' family and friends. These visitor behavior guidelines help ensure that UWMC is a safe place for our patients and our visitors. Please read this handout carefully.
