

High-Grade Neuro-Oncology (Neuro-Onc) CareMap

Your care plan may be different.

		Before Treatment		Treatment Day 1	Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4	Week 5	Week 6	Home Care	1 Month After	Every 2 to 3 Months
Clinic: Where do I go?	Chemo				Lab	Lab	Lab and UWMC Neuro-Onc	Lab	Lab	Lab		Lab and UWMC Neuro-Onc	Lab, Radiology, and UWMC Neuro-Onc
	Radiation	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center		Radiology and UWMC Neuro-Onc
Treatment: What am I getting done?	Chemo			Begin daily chemo (7 days a week) and weekly labs	Labs	Labs	Labs and Neuro-Onc office visit	Labs	Labs	Labs	1 month break from chemotherapy Call your Neuro-Onc clinic if you have: • Seizures • Fever	Labs and Neuro-Onc office visit, resume chemo for 6 to 12 months	Labs, MRI/CT, and Neuro-Onc office visit
	Radiation	Consent form and CT sim (immobilization mask)	Plan verification visit	Begin daily radiation treatment (weekdays) and weekly Doctor Days (visit with Rad-Onc doctor)	Doctor Day weight: _____	Doctor Day weight: _____	Doctor Day weight: _____	Doctor Day weight: _____	Doctor Day weight: _____	Doctor Day weight: _____	Doctor Day weight: _____	Call your Rad-Onc clinic (or Neuro-Onc clinic after radiation treatment) if you have: • Ongoing nausea • Vomiting • Headaches • Neurological symptom changes	MRI/CT and Rad-Onc office visit weight: _____
Activity	Chemo and Radiation	Talk about driving and other activity restrictions with care team		Goal: Daily exercise
Diet	Chemo	No diet restrictions for chemo unless specified by your Neuro-Onc team
	Radiation	No weight loss programs Goal: Eating 75% of meals, no nausea
Hygiene	Chemo	Staples/stitches out		Good hand washing practices
	Radiation			Clean and dry skin 2 hours before treatment No conditioners or products that contain oil on scalp or skin
Education	Chemo and Radiation	RN teaching and education materials for patient		Education as needed (talk about steroid tapering with Rad-Onc RN)									Rad-Onc RN follow-up phone call	Review chemo dosing, lab guidelines

Your Neuro-Oncology Team
UWMC Cancer Center/Radiation Oncology Clinic: 206-598-4100

After hours and on holidays and weekends, call 206-598-6190 and ask for the Radiation Oncology doctor on call to be paged.

Attending Doctor: _____

Resident Doctor: Your resident doctor is receiving advanced training in radiation therapy. This doctor rotates to a new service every 3 months, so you may see a new resident or not have one during your treatment.

Nurse Practitioner/Physician Assistant: _____

Nurse: _____

UWMC Neuro-Oncology Clinic: 206-598-5637

In the Neurosurgery Clinic in the Surgery Pavilion

After hours and on holidays and weekends, call 206-598-6190 and ask for the Neurology doctor on call to be paged.

Attending Doctor: _____

Nurse Practitioner/Physician Assistant: _____

Nurse: _____

Questions?

Your questions are important. Call your doctor or health care provider if you have questions or concerns.

UWMC Radiation
Oncology: 206-598-4100