Day 0: OR to ICU
- Moved to ICU after surgery
- Breathing tube through nose or mouth
- Drains in place

Day 1: ICU to 4NE
- Stomach feeding tube placed
- Pain under control
- Central line catheter placed
- Off breathing machine
- Out of bed to chair, if able

- Drains suction fluids from surgery site
- Assisted bath
- Move out of ICU to 4-Northeast (4NE) Unit

Day 2: 4NE
- Feeding begins through stomach tube
- Able to cough out secretions on your own
- Help with personal hygiene, as able
- Health care team talks with you about discharge

Day 3: 4NE
- Continue feeding through stomach tube
- Review self-care teaching
- Learn about wound care with family member or caregiver there

Day 4: 4NE
- If able to swallow, begin drinking fluids by mouth
- May fit leg boot
- May fit arm splint
- Discharge transportation planned

Day 5: 4NE
- If able to swallow, begin drinking fluids by mouth
- May fit leg boot
- May fit arm splint
- Discharge transportation planned

Day 6: 4NE
- Eat liquid foods
- May fit arm splint
- Discharge transportation planned

Day 7: Discharge
- Ask questions about anything you are not sure about
- All drains and IV lines removed
- Shower
- Shower, dress in own clothes
- Discharge from the hospital

Every Day During Hospital Stay
- Pressure ulcer prevention
- Wearing sequential compression devices (SCDs)

---

© University of Washington Medical Center

Published PFES: 04/2013, Rev. 09/2013 Clinician Review: 09/2013
Reprints on Health Online: https://healthonline.washington.edu