The Health Information Resource Center is open weekdays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The phone number is 206-598-7960.

Classes and Programs
Information on UWMC-sponsored programs and support groups is available at the Cancer Library, including information on the Living Well with Cancer Classes: Arts in Healing, and Knit for Life.

Thank You!
The UWMC Cancer Library is supported through generous donations from the family and friends of John A. Cortner.

---

Questions?
Please call your doctor or health care provider if you have questions or concerns.

UWMC Cancer Library:
206-598-4218
About the Library

The UWMC Cancer Library provides resources about cancer and its treatment. Our books, pamphlets, and articles cover:

- Alternative therapies
- Books for children
- Caregiving
- Chemotherapy
- Coping with grief and loss
- Humor and inspiration
- Living with cancer
- Local resources
- New diagnosis
- Personal growth
- Radiation
- Relationships
- Specific cancers

Patients Are First

The UWMC Cancer Library helps patients and families in need of printed or online information and resources.

- UWMC patients, family members, and friends are invited to borrow and return library materials on the honor system.
- If you have questions about the library, please call UWMC Volunteer Services at 206-598-4218.

How to Find the UWMC Cancer Library

The UWMC Cancer Library is on the 8th floor of the hospital, Room 8347 in the 8-Southeast clinics. The library is open on weekdays during clinic hours. To find the library:

- Take the Cascade elevators to the 8th floor.
- As you leave the elevator, turn to your right. Look for signs directing you to the Cancer Library.

Health Information Resource Center

Visit UWMC’s Health Information Resource Center in the lobby inside the main entrance of the hospital (on the 3rd floor) for more health information or for business center needs (fax, phone, copier, printer, and computers with Internet access).