

Low-Grade Neuro-Oncology (Neuro-Onc) CareMap

Your care plan may be different.

	Before Treatment	Treatment Day 1		Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4	Week 5	Week 6	Home Care	1 Month After	Every 2 to 3 Months
Clinic: Where do I go?	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center	UWMC Cancer Center		Radiology and UWMC Neuro-Onc	Radiology and UWMC Neuro-Onc
Treatment: What am I getting done?	Consent form and CT simulation (immobilization mask)	Plan verification visit	Begin daily radiation treatment (weekdays) and weekly Doctor Days (visit with Rad-Onc doctor)	Doctor Day weight: _____	Doctor Day weight: _____	Doctor Day weight: _____	Doctor Day weight: _____	Doctor Day weight: _____	Doctor Day weight: _____	Call your Rad-Onc clinic if you have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ongoing nausea • Vomiting • Headaches • Neurological symptom changes 	MRI/CT and office visit weight: _____	MRI/CT and office visit weight: _____
Activity	Talk about driving and other activity restrictions with care team> Goal: Daily exercise >
Diet	No weight loss programs Goal: Eating 75% of meals, no nausea>
Hygiene	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clean and dry skin 2 hours before treatment • No conditioners or products that contain oil on scalp or skin
Education	RN teaching and education materials for patient		Education as needed (talk about steroid tapering with Rad-Onc RN)							Rad-Onc RN follow-up phone call

Your Radiation Oncology Team

UWMC Cancer Center/Radiation Oncology Clinic: 206-598-4100

After hours and on holidays and weekends, call 206-598-6190 and ask for the Radiation Oncology doctor on call to be paged.

Attending Doctor: _____

Resident Doctor: Your resident doctor is receiving advanced training in radiation therapy. This doctor rotates to a new service every 3 months, so you may see a new resident or not have one during your treatment.

Nurse Practitioner/Physician Assistant: _____

Nurse: _____

Note: The UWMC Neuro-Oncology Clinic is in the Neurosurgery Clinic in the Surgery Pavilion.

Questions?

Your questions are important. Call your doctor or health care provider if you have questions or concerns.

UWMC Radiation
Oncology: 206-598-4100